Packed for a Purpose

He has filled them with skill.

EXODUS 35:35 NKJV

You were born prepacked. God looked at your entire life, determined your assignment, and gave you the tools to do the job.

Before traveling, you do something similar. You consider the demands of the journey and pack accordingly. Cold weather? Bring a jacket. Business meeting? Carry the laptop. Time with grandchildren? Better take some sneakers and pain medication.

God did the same with you. Joe will research animals...install curiosity. Meagan will lead a private school...an extra dose of management. I need Eric to comfort the sick...include a healthy share of compassion. Denalyn will marry Max...instill a double portion of patience.

God packed you on purpose for a purpose.

FAMILY MATTERS

Our deepest sympathy to the family of Harold Kennamer. He passed away Dec. 19th in Abilene. Services were in Alabama. Dallana Loper has had problems with medication as she recovers from heart surgery.

Kandi Stewart was able to enjoy Christmas with Tommy and Judy as she continues with chemotherapy.

Dan McDaniel was feeling a little better every day this past week and enjoyed Christmas with his family.

Mary Tucker went home from the hospital last Monday and enjoyed Christmas with her family as she continues to recuperate.

Lela Mae Nevins continues to recover from her bad fall. She enjoyed Christmas with her family but is still very sore. Please pray for these people and their caretakers.

Also keep these people in your hearts and prayers: SERVICE MEN & WOMEN, Clayton Williams, John Brookins, Gene Hayhurst, Jay Weddel, Frances Lemoine, Darla Young, David George, Frances Hodges, Shirley Armontrout, Linda Hodges and Jimmie Scott.

The James family would like to express their thanks to friends and family for the many letters, cards, flowers and meals we received during the sudden illness and passing of Renee. Your support helped us to cope at this sad time. The James Family

Thanks so much to the LTC kids for remembering us with the cake.
In Christian Love
Charles and Jessie
