Go In Peace?

Did you know that major cities across the country hand out thousands of free one-way bus tickets to the homeless every year? It's called the Homeless Relocation Program. Its purpose is to ship "the problem" somewhere else.

God brings needy people into our lives to give us the opportunity to grow in our faith. To take advantage of these opportunities, we must resist the temptation to pass them on to someone else. The Christian faith is nothing, if not a call to action.

James 2:15-17

Suppose a brother or a sister is without clothes and daily food. If one of you says to them, "Go in peace; keep warm and well fed," but does nothing about their physical needs, what good is it? In the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead.

Many times in our lives we also attempt to "ship" our problems somewhere else. But if we are going to be Christ followers, then it is much more than just saying those words, it is a call to action.

Being the "hands and feet of Jesus" is a phrase that we like to use a lot of times, but it can get messy sometimes when we go beyond saying the words, and begin to live it out by our actions. But that is the very action Jesus has called us to as followers of His. Love people until they ask you why. When they ask you why you continue to love them, they will then be open to seeing that you love them because that is how Jesus loves you.

I love you all,
Tim
