Put Out To Deep Waters

Richard Armstrong once wrote the following:

"When fog prevents a small-boat sailor from seeing the buoy marking the course he wants, he turns his boat rapidly in small circles, knowing that the waves he makes will rock the buoy in the vicinity. Then he stops, listens and repeats the procedure until he hears the buoy clang. By making waves, he finds where his course lies... Often the price of finding these guides is a willingness to take a few risks, to 'make a few waves.'"

"A boat that stays in the harbor never encounters dangers--but it also never gets anywhere."

Luke 5:4

When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into deep water, and let down the nets for a catch.

Are you currently floating in the safety of the harbor of life? Is God calling you to bigger and more meaningful things for His Kingdom in the deeper waters, but you are refusing to go? Remember, He is the same God that spoke and the raging sea became calm, but the choice is yours.

I love you all,

Tim
