Bring a Better Face

My Mom was a photographer and so I would often have to be the “model” for her as she tried out new places to make pictures. She would always show me the pictures after the shoot and want my input on the location. She would just simply ask, “So what do you think about the pictures?” I would look at them and complain that I looked terrible. My Mom would quickly reply, “If you want a better picture, bring a better face.”

I realized later in life that she was trying to teach me something more than how to take a better picture. She wanted me to know that a poor attitude, whether angry, upset, or bitter, comes through on our face. The problem wasn't with the camera but with my attitude.

In life, the best way to become a better person is to take on a better attitude. When we give our lives to follow Jesus, we change our lives and our attitudes to model His. His love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control are expressed on our faces and in our actions. When that happens, we will always take better pictures.

Romans 13:14 New International Version (NIV)

¹⁴ Rather, clothe yourselves with the Lord Jesus Christ, and do not think about how to gratify the desires of the flesh.

I love you all,

Tim
