A Pencil in God's Hand

Mother Teresa once said, "No one thinks of the pen while reading the letter. They only want to know the mind of the person who wrote the letter. That's exactly what I am in God's hand--a little pencil."

This reminds me of the following statement by John the Baptist.

John 3:30

He must become greater; I must become less.

If we are to fulfill our calling and accurately represent the God we seek to serve, then we must forget about ourselves. Like "a little pencil in God's hand", we must show the world what's on God's mind.

Mother Teresa concluded, "God is writing his love letter to the world in this way, through works of love." Are you allowing God "to write His love letter to the world" through your life?

I love you all,

Tim
