The Best Day

There once was a man who kept a fishing log. One day, in his old age, he reflected back by looking through the pages of the years spent on the sea. On 8/14/1972 the log read, "Went out to sea, caught nothing."

There once was a boy who kept a journal. The boy's journal also had an entry for 8/14/1972. The boy's journal read, "Went fishing with Dad, it was the best day of my life."

In the father's mind it was a wasted day because nothing was caught. The boy, on the other hand, had a different perspective. To him it was time spent with the most important person in the world. It was the best day of his life.

Which of these perspectives do you take into your day? Do you have to catch something for the day to be meaningful? Or is it enough that you've spent the day with your Heavenly Father? When you are faced with difficult situations in your life is prayer your first reaction, or your last resort?

Always start with prayer, always end with prayer, and always pray in the times between the start and the end. Keep a journal and you will realize that spending that time with the Father is always going to be "the best day of my life."

"Better is one day in your courts than a thousand elsewhere; I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than dwell in the tents of the wicked" Psalm 84:10.

I love you all,

Tim
