Edith Bunker's Secret to a Happy Marriage

In a classic episode of the 1970s sitcom "All In The Family," Edith Bunker is complimented on her "happy" marriage to Archie.

"Of all the people I know, you're practically the only one who has a happy marriage," says Edith's friend.

"Really, me and Archie? Oh thank you!"

"What's your secret, Edith?"

"Oh, I ain't got no secret. Archie and me still have our fights. Of course, we don't let them go on too long. Somebody always says 'I'm sorry,' and then Archie always says, 'It's okay Edith.'"

"I am sorry" are words that far too often are never spoken in our world today. Too often we allow pride to interfere. This happens even in our relationship with God. However there is only one relationship we have where one party is the only one that ever needs to apologize, and that is in our relationship with God.

Revelation 3:19

"Those whom I love I rebuke and discipline. So be earnest and repent."

I love you all,

Tim
