Remembered

The New York Times carried an obituary of Victor Dorman. It read, "Victor Dorman, who helped change the way Americans buy cheese by putting the paper between the slices, as chairman of the Dorman Cheese Company, died on March 4th at his home in Delray Beach, Fl. He was 80."

Dorman actually graduated from a prestigious college and fought in WWII. He also lived an impressive and successful life. But in the end, it was one quirky little thing that left a lasting impact.

As you go through your life, pay attention to all of the details. The things that you do and say both big and small, can leave a lasting impact.

1 Peter 4:10

Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms.

I love you all,

Tim
