Squeeze More Joy Out of Every Day

Time magazine recently ran an article titled "14 Ways to Squeeze More Joy Out of Every Day." The author, Ellen Seidman, said this: "Sometime this morning, during your shower or at work, you probably did a mental run-through of your day. You decided when you'd tackle various tasks and errands. Perhaps you vowed to hit the gym at lunchtime. Maybe you plotted to get out of something (apologies, PTA meeting). The one thing you forgot to plan for: happiness."

A man, living in the third century, was dying when he wrote these last words to a friend: "It's a bad world, an incredibly bad world. But I have discovered in the midst of it a quiet and holy people who have learned a great secret. They have found a joy which is a thousand times better than any pleasure of our sinful life. They are despised and persecuted, but they care not. They are masters of their souls. They have overcome the world. They are truly a joyful people. These people are the Christians ... and I am one of them".

Followers of Jesus have learned a great secret: Jesus is the reason for the joy of joys. His presence in our life and the promise of eternal life in heaven with Him brings an indescribable joy to any set of circumstances. If you want to squeeze more joy out of everyday life, fit more of Jesus into it.

John 15:11

I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete.

I love you all,

Tim

NEWS AND NOTES

- ❖ Dear Friends, I want to express my appreciation to each of you for your prayers and the many loving cards that you so graciously wrote and sent to George Jr. and me. Losing my sister has left a terrible emptiness in our families' lives. Our hearts are truly broken. Her eight children and twenty-two grandchildren also appreciate your thoughtfulness in reaching across the miles extending your tender love and prayers. May God bless you one and all, and may He hold you always in the hollow of His hand. Most Sincerely, Susan Jennings
- ❖ Church Family, Thank you so much for supporting my mission trip to Australia. It was such a fun experience, being able to use basketball as a platform to minister to others. It's awesome to worship with brothers and sisters in Christ on the other side of the world! We really serve a powerful and mighty God! Micah Bailey
