Identify Yourself

Setting out from Hamburg, Germany one day to give a concert in London, violinist Fritz Kreisler had an hour before his boat sailed. He wandered into a music shop, where the proprietor asked if he might look at the violin Kreisler was carrying. He then vanished and returned with two policemen, one of whom told the violinist, "You are under arrest."

"What for?" asked Kreisler.

"You have Fritz Kreisler's violin."

"I am Fritz Kreisler," protested the musician.

"No you're not. Come along."

As Kreisler's boat was sailing soon, there was no time for prolonged explanations. Kreisler asked for his violin and played a piece he was well known for.

"Now are you satisfied?" he asked. The policemen let the musician go because he had done what only Fritz Kreisler could do.

Disciples need to do what they are known for doing, what only they can do. Jesus said, John 13:35 "By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another."

This love is an unconditional love and one which only a disciple, someone who has experienced Jesus' love and forgiveness, can demonstrate. So, if you are a Christian, do what only a disciple of Jesus can do. Love others with the same love that you have received through Jesus.

I love you all,

Tim
