Rock Star Janitor

Think back to your school days. Who were the people you wanted to sign your yearbook: the captain of the football team, the homecoming queen or king, the student class president, the school janitor? Wait, what? Did you say the school janitor?

Steve Weidner, a custodian at Alan Shepard Elementary School in Bourbonnais, Illinois, said it made him feel great to see that each and every second grade student lined up near the playground in hopes to have him autograph their yearbooks. ...

Last week, Weidner said he signed all 104 of the second graders' yearbooks after lunch -- in addition to 200 more from other classes. ...

Cameras flashed to capture the fan frenzy, with pictures being posted in the district news. One caption read: "Shepard Custodian Steve 'Mr. Steve' Weidner has reached Rock Star status by autographing yearbooks for his 'fans'!"

So what has "Mr. Steve" done to so endear himself to the kids of Shephard Elementary? For fifteen years, day in and day out, he's just loved them, made sure to be accessible to them whenever they've needed help or encouragement. He laughs with them and cries with them. He takes care of their needs.

The next time you are questioning yourself about the day to day impact you are having for the Kingdom of God, just think of "rock star" Steve Weidner. Ask yourself the honest question of do I want to be doing more because of the status of doing more will bring to me, or am I giving all that I can possibly give right here where God has planted me to serve Him? It reminds me of a famous phrase "If God calls you to be a janitor, don't stoop to be a king."

Always remember what a dear friend once shared with me, God does not call the qualified, He qualifies the called.

Mark 9:35 New International Version (NIV)

³⁵ Sitting down, Jesus called the Twelve and said, "Anyone who wants to be first must be the very last, and the servant of all."

Serve Jesus with all your heart wherever He has placed you today for His Kingdom, and His glory.

I love you all,

Tim
