A Sincere Prayer

I came across an old Jewish story in an article the other day that said this:

"A poor man, lost in the woods, found himself at nightfall without his prayer book, so he addressed this petition to the Almighty: "Dear God I have done a stupid thing: I do not have my prayer book. And I have such a poor memory that I cannot recite the prayers by heart. But you know all the prayers, Lord, so I'll just recite the letters of the alphabet, and You put them together in the right way.

And the Almighty regarded that prayer, because of its sincerity, more worthy than any of the others He heard that day."

I really like that story because it reminds me that when we pray we can say anything. It doesn't even have to make sense, because through the Holy Spirit, our words will make sense to God. All we have to do is to pray "from the heart." I encourage each of us in this desperate time in our country to pray from the heart, knowing that God will hear and understand our prayers.

Romans 8:26

In the same way, the Spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we ought to pray for, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us through wordless groans.

The Good Book says it, and I believe it, how about you?

I love you all,

Tim
