Don't Touch My Brisket

Randall Lance Hughes, 48, was tazed by Waco police after drawing a knife. When the tazer had no effect, the Waco Police Department wrote in a Facebook post, "Our officers were forced to discharge their weapons in defense of their lives."

What was so important that Mr. Lance was willing to face down the police? Well, unless you happen to be a Texan, the answer might seem a bit strange to you. He was stealing a brisket! With the rising price of meat, a black market for brisket has emerged in Texas. Thefts have been reported in 19 H-E-B food stores, and thieves are selling the stolen briskets to local barbecue vendors.

One blogger wrote in response to the police incident, "To all you out of state invaders: This is Texas, where we take our brisket seriously. Stealing it is akin to stealing cattle. I propose a law to make BBQ theft punishable by public hanging; of course, it should be at 1:00 PM, after a BBQ plate lunch is provided to the crowd."

Apparently, Randall Lance Hughes was willing to risk it all for a brisket! But are you willing to risk it all for something that really matters? How about risking your friendships, your relationships in order to share the Gospel message with those you know and love. Granted, you probably won't be shot for mentioning Jesus to your friends. Nevertheless, there is a risk and many shrink from it.

2 Timothy 2:10

So I am willing to endure anything if it will bring salvation and eternal glory in Christ Jesus to those God has chosen.

I love you all,

Tim
