Who Robs A Food Bank?

The Inland Valley Daily Bulletin reports:

A local nonprofit is in dire need of help after thieves broke into its food pantry last weekend and walked away with office equipment and cleared out its shelves.

Larry Kapchinsky, the co-founder of KidCare International, estimates this has set back the pantry about $20,000. Now he's asking the community to help them feed needy families this holiday season.

"A whole year of preparing for this season got wiped out in one night," he said. Kapchinsky said he was in disbelief when the volunteer called to tell him the news. "Who steals from a food bank? We would have given them help if they just asked," he said.

Kapchinsky says the suspects went into the freezer and took almost all the items, leaving unwanted items in the freezer. Those items went to waste because the freezer door stayed open.

"What they didn't steal, they trashed," he said.

Some people would rather resort to desperate measures, including stealing from a food bank, than ask for the help they need. Thanksgiving begins with a willingness to receive. Understand that even more valuable than all of the things the world has to offer is the possession of a grateful heart. It is gratitude that makes us rich.

Mark 8:36

What good is it for someone to gain the whole world, yet forfeit their soul?

I love you all,
Tim

NEWS AND NOTES

- ❖ Dear Church, Thank you for the Sonic gift card and letter. I hope I see you for Thanksgiving and if I don't, I wish you a Happy Thanksgiving. Halloween was fun. I'm in band. I play the trombone so hard. Sixth grade is fun. Love, Veronica Yarbrough
- ❖ Brian Bailey had day surgery on his knee last Wednesday. He has been sore but the surgery went well.
- ❖ Carol Martin has moved back to her room in assisted living. She can only tolerate short visits as she tires easily.
- ❖ Lanelle Dovel remains in Trustpoint Rehab in Lubbock after having a stroke.
- ❖ Judy Stewart's brother, Larry Sexton, did not have a heart attack. His doctors are determining what heart issues he has.
- ❖ Angela Thompson finished all of her cancer treatments in Sept. and had tests run last month. They all came back cancer free. She is the daughter-in-law of Joe Bob and Sharon Thompson.
- ❖ Joe Bob has been really sick. He spent a night in the hospital. He's better and getting stronger each day.
- ❖ Ann Thompson has been struggling with cancer for a long time. She has just started taking a new oral chemo medication. She is scheduled for a pet scan at MD Anderson on December 12th. Please pray that this new medication will be successful for Ann!

Happy Birthday!
22nd - Bob Colson

Please check the activity table for details on upcoming events in our area.

- ❖ The high school drama class is presenting their fall production, "Three Musketeers", today at 3:00 p.m. Tayleigh, Tyler and several members of our Wednesday night class are cast members.
- ❖ Today is our Potluck luncheon and early service. Please join us!
- ❖ Today is also our annual Thanksgiving ham delivery. If you haven't signed up, there are still names and addresses available.
- ❖ We will not have morning Bible class this Wednesday, Nov. 22nd, and we will have a short devotional this Wed. evening.
- ❖ If you can help send some Christmas goodies to Crystal Leatherman, please sign up on the activity table for the items you will bring. Have your items here by next Sun., Nov. 26th. You may also give money for gift cards or postage to Miko or Debbie.
- ❖ Our Christmas Talent Show is scheduled for Sunday, December 3rd. We will have evening services, potluck and the talent show all at the Senior Citizens Building this year, starting at 5:00. We will not have potluck at noon that day. Sign up your talent on the activity table!
- ❖ Family Movie Night is December 17th, featuring "Fireproof". Popcorn will be furnished. Everyone is invited to bring snacks.
