We Cannot Control Our Enemy

During the meeting of the Constitutional Convention in Philadelphia, one of the members moved "that the standing army be restricted to no more than 5000 men at any one time."

George Washington, being the chairman, could not offer a motion, but he turned to another member and whispered, "Amend the motion to provide that no foreign enemy shall invade the United States at any time with more than 3000 troops."

As Christians, we find ourselves engaged in an eternal changing battle for souls. We can know the strategy of the enemy. We can study his tactics. We can see what he does in the lives of others and we can see the path of destruction that is left in the lives of those who follow him. What we cannot do is control him.

But we can put on the whole armor of God so that we are prepared for the fight.

Ephesians 6:11

Put on the full armor of God, so that you can take your stand against the devil's schemes.

I love you all,

Tim
