A New Identity

There is a story about Margaret Thatcher visiting a retirement community while she was serving as the Prime Minister of the United Kingdom. She walked around visiting with residents and shaking hands. When it seemed like one woman didn't recognize her, Thatcher asked, "Do you know who I am?"

"No," the woman replied, "But if you ask the nurse, she usually knows."

In Christ, we are to intentionally forget who we were and take on a new identity. Paul instructed the Galatians that following Jesus means letting our old selves die so we might take up a completely new self.

Have you forgotten who you were? If so ask Jesus; He "usually knows."

Galatians 2:20

"I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I now live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me."

I love you all,

Tim
