Debt Canceled

Back in August of 2019, Chase Bank did something for its Canadian credit cardholders that was unprecedented; it completely and utterly wiped their debt away. Isn't that amazing? Especially when you consider the fact that there had to be some customers that had maxed out their card.

Can you imagine what some felt like when they got the letter from the Chase Bank? Some may have thought it was the bank coming down hard on them, only to find out that their record had been cleared!

What do you think that would feel like? Can you even imagine it? It really shouldn't be that hard for us to imagine. Today we have the opportunity to receive the grace of God extended to us through Jesus. By His sacrifice, we can be completely and utterly forgiven. The debt to a Holy God has been completely wiped clean. Will you accept that free gift today?

Isaiah 53:5

⁵ But he was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was on him, and by his wounds we are healed.

I love you all,
Tim
