Take a Good Look at Yourself

A woman walked into a bank to open a new account. As she sat across the desk from the banker, she helped herself to one of his business cards. Looking at the card, she thought to herself that she had gone to high school with a boy by the same name, but quickly dismissed the possibility that he could be the same guy.

The banker, wrinkled and balding, looked much too old to have been in her high school class. Still, he bore a strong resemblance, and the name was the same. She wondered if perhaps he was the father of the boy she remembered.

"Did your son attend high school locally?" she inquired. "No, but I did. Valley High, class of '63." "Really?" she questioned. But I was at Valley High in 1963!" "You were? I thought you looked familiar. What subject did you teach?"

It's funny how we tend to look at ourselves so much less realistically than we look at others. If she took a good look at the face in the mirror, she'd see it was as old as the face sitting across the desk. I encourage each of us to take a good look at our hearts this week and answer this question...Is it as sinful as all the others around you?

Luke 6:41

Why do you look at the speck of sawdust in your brother's eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye?

I love you all, Tim

WELCOME TO CENTRAL CHURCH OF CHRIST!!!

If you are visiting us today, we are honored you have chosen us. We hope that today's time together will help deepen your relationship with God and widen your circle of friends. We are a church family who seek to follow Jesus and be true to the Bible.

Please stay around after our assembly so that we might get to know you better. Thank you again for worshipping with us today.

NEWS AND NOTES

- ❖ Thank you for all the prayers in the passing of my dad. Also, thank you for all the calls, messages and the food. It helped us get through this hard time. Love, the Klein Family
- ❖ We recently received this note sent to our church email address and are not sure who deserves the credit, so we'll share with everyone. "I work in the Central Office for Tulia ISD. Recently we all received a little note with a package of EXTRA gum on it. The note expressed just what we all need at this time. 'We are saying EXTRA prayers for you during this school year.' Thank you for the kind gesture and prayers." Rickey Summar, Educational Diagnostician

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

No birthdays this week. Let us know if we have overlooked anyone.

ACTIVITIES

- ❖ Due to many churches still not being able to meet normally, coupled with a national change shortage, High Plains Children's Home has decided not to send out cans for the Change for Children campaign this year. If you would still like to contribute to this campaign which helps to cover the cost of cottage groceries and household supplies, you may do so online at hpch.org/giving or mail a check noted "CFC" to: High Plains Children's Home, PO Box 7448, Amarillo TX, 79114
- ❖ We are getting a money tree together for Andrew and Megan Shipley to celebrate the birth of their new baby boy, River Neil. Please give your money to Jennifer or Anna and sign the card at the back of the auditorium by today, Sept. 20th.
- ❖ We continue today having one Bible class for all ages, beginning at 9:30 a.m. We are also having one worship service, starting at 10:30 a.m. We ask everyone to sit throughout the auditorium for social distancing. If you do not feel comfortable in this setting, we understand and encourage you to watch at home on our YouTube channel.
- ❖ All of our other group worship, children's classes, and other activities continue to be canceled until further notice.
- ❖ Our Wednesday evening "Pick Me Up" devotional is available every Wednesday evening at 5:45 p.m. on our YouTube channel, "Tulia Central Church of Christ".
