Have you ever heard the story of "Alexander and the Horrible, Terrible, Not Good, Very Bad Day"? Alexander was a boy about 7 or 8 years old, & he had one of those days when everything went wrong, disasters one right after another. Nothing went right. "It was a Horrible, Terrible, Not Good, Very Bad Day."

For instance, when Alexander woke up in the morning, he discovered that he had gone to bed with gum in his mouth, & when he awoke it was in his hair. When he got out of bed he tripped over his skateboard, & then he dropped his sweater into the sink where the water was running.

He said, "I just knew it was going to be a Horrible, Terrible, Not Good, Very Bad Day!" Then he went to school, & it turned out to be a horrible day there, too.

After school he had a terrible experience at the Dentist's office. Then came supper, & he said, "We had cauliflower for supper, & I hate cauliflower! And on TV all I saw was huggin & kissin, & I hate huggin & kissin!"

"Then my bath water was too hot, & I got soap in my eyes, & I lost my marble down the drain. When I went to bed, Nick took back the pillow that he said I could have. And my Star Trek night light burned out, & I bit my tongue, & the cat decided to sleep with Nick & not with me."

"All in all," He said, "it was a Horrible, Terrible, Not Good, Very Bad Day"

Now is it any wonder that when Alexander finally came to the end of that day, he heaved a sigh and cried, "I think I'll just run away"?

Have you ever felt that way? I'm sure you have! Almost all of us have had days of anxiety & stress & frayed nerve endings, & we need to learn how to deal with them.

Perhaps Psalms 46 can help level our emotional mountains and valleys when times of stress, doubt, fear, anxiety, frustration, "who's in charge?" attitudes appear.

Psalm 46

<sup>1</sup> God is our refuge and strength,
an ever-present help in trouble.

<sup>2</sup> Therefore we will not fear, though the earth give way and the mountains fall into the heart of the sea, <sup>3</sup> though its waters roar and foam
and the mountains quake with their surging.

<sup>4</sup> There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God,
the holy place where the Most High dwells.

<sup>5</sup> God is within her, she will not fall;
God will help her at break of day.

he lifts his voice, the earth melts.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD Almighty is with us;
the God of Jacob is our fortress.

<sup>8</sup> Come and see what the LORD has done,
the desolations he has brought on the earth.

<sup>9</sup> He makes wars cease
to the ends of the earth.

He breaks the bow and shatters the spear;
he burns the shields with fire.

<sup>10</sup> He says, "Be still, and know that I am God;
I will be exalted among the nations,
I will be exalted in the earth."

the God of Jacob is our fortress.

See Ya At The Gathering Place!
