June 12, 2022

This is the beginning of a new day.

I can waste it or use it for good.

What I do today is important because I am exchanging a day of my life for it.

When tomorrow comes, this day will be gone forever,

Leaving in its place something I have traded for it.

I want it to be a gain, not a loss;

Good, not evil;

Success, not failure—

In order that I shall not regret the price I paid for it today.

NEWS AND NOTES

- ❖ To every member of Central Church of Christ, Just want to let you all know how much I appreciate all the prayers, cards and visits. I hope to be going home soon. I'm still doing therapy. My left hand is still not working properly. I'm hoping to go to Mid-Tule Village when I'm out of here. So many of you all have been there for me and Blake in more ways than you should. We appreciate everything. I can't wait to get back home and get Blake through Job Corps. I think he will be in Wyoming instead of Montana, not sure yet. He will be taking the basic welding course and the advanced welding course, then firefighting. Thank you so much! Ramona Raymond and Blake
- ❖ Hope Trevino was released from Swisher Memorial Hospital last Wednesday. She has been staying with her sister for a few days.
- ❖ Noe Jackson is in BSA with a leg wound. He is also on dialysis 3 days a week. Please keep Noe and his family in your prayers.
- ❖ The elders want you to know that Toby Brown will be in the church office most Wednesday afternoons from 2 until 6. If you have a need for prayer, Bible study or thoughtful conversation, he would be more than happy to visit with you.

Happy Birthday!
15th Debbie Combest
