I LOVE YOU, LORD!

Lord, You are so wonderful. My words are so inadequate, my actions so inconsistent, my passion so sporadic. Yet, You love me so. What more could You do, when all has already been done. My redemption...Your cost. How can I ever repay...no, I really never can. Oh, how I wish I could lavish You with the gifts and fortunes of this life. Yet to You they are nothing. All the gold, a whisper of Your voice; the jewels, a gentle brush of Your finger; the majesty of snow-capped mountains, a mere symbol of Your majestic thoughts. Yes, You made them all. You receive all the heaven's magnificent glory and surely You deserve all my praise, yet You have waited so patiently for me to come to You to express my thanks. In all of this, You have taken notice of me. You want to establish a relationship with me. Oh Father, how wonderful You are, how majestic is Your name. I owe You (let me slow down lest I take this too lightly)... my life.

I am unworthy to command Your attention, yet You want to hear my meager attempts at praise. Thank You for that gift. The gift of allowing me to say thanks to You. What?... You want me to sing for You? Really? Why sure, I'd be honored. I mean, if You have the time and all. I really don't sing that well, but if You're sure. Here goes...

I love You, Lord-And I lift my voice, To worship You-Oh my soul rejoice.
Take joy my King in what You hear, Let it be a sweet, sweet sound in Your ear.
I love You Lord-And I lift my hands, To worship You as my soul demands.
Take joy my King in what You see, May I be a sweet, sweet child on Your knee.
