Do All for the Glory of God

I am told that Martin Luther was approached by a working man who wanted to know how he could serve God. Luther asked him, "What is your work now?" The man said, "I'm a shoemaker."

Much to the cobbler's surprise, Luther replied, "Then make good shoes and sell them at a fair price."

Luther didn't tell the man to make "Christian shoes." He didn't tell the man to leave his shoe business and become a monk.

Six months before he was assassinated, Martin Luther King spoke to a group of Jr. High School students at Barratt Junior High School in Philadelphia and this is what he said: "If it falls your lot to be a street sweeper, sweep streets like Michelangelo painted pictures, sweep streets like Beethoven composed music, sweep streets like Shakespeare wrote poetry. Sweep streets so well that all the hosts of heaven and earth will have to pause and say: 'Here lived a great street sweeper who swept his job well.'"

Wherever you find yourself in this life do the best you can. "So whether you eat or drink or whatever you do, do it all for the glory of God. Do not cause anyone to stumble, whether Jews, Greeks or the church of God—even as I try to please everyone in every way. For I am not seeking my own good but the good of many, so that they may be saved." – 1 Corinthians 10:31-33.

Taken from the Central Church of Christ bulletin, June 3, 2012

Dear Church Family,

We do not have the words to express our gratitude, and I know that probably seems strange coming from someone who speaks publicly every week. Thankful just does not seem to be a strong enough word, but we are thankful that we were sent by God to you to do life with you these past several years.

We are thankful you allowed us to grow and stretch and find the path God has called us to and we hope that we provided the same growth for you. We are both sad and excited all in the same breath. We will continue to pray for you and the ministry in Tulia and ask that you pray for us in our ministry in Haskell.

We are overwhelmed by the going away party and are grateful for the box of Kleenex...they are extremely absorbent and the best Kleenexes we have ever had. Keep stretching, keep growing, keep asking the why questions, and keep loving people until they ask you why.

We love you all,

Tim, Trish, Tyler, and Tayleigh Johnson

WELCOME TO CENTRAL CHURCH OF CHRIST!!!

If you are visiting us today, we are honored you have chosen us. We hope that today's time together will help deepen your relationship with God and widen your circle of friends. We are a church family who seek to follow Jesus and be true to the Bible.

Please stay around after our assembly so that we might get to know you better. Thank you again for worshipping with us today.
