“Ways to Know Your Church is Unfriendly”

1. When the sign out front says, “For members only.”
2. When the parking lot has a sign that says, “Unauthorized vehicles will be towed at owner’s expense.”
3. When the church lobby has a sign that says, “No loitering.”
4. When you say, “Praise the Lord!” and the guy behind you says, “We don’t do that here.”
5. When the pastor’s message is entitled, “The Theological Significance of the Eschatological Dimensions of the Sanctified Life in the Pre-Millennial View of Predestination.”
6. When they pass the plate – twice.
7. When, at fellowship, coffee is $1.50 and donuts are $1.00 – limit one.
8. When the church’s motto is – “We’re getting smaller but purer.”
9. When traditions are more important than people’s needs.

Dick Alexander wrote the following. “With the amount of human need touching us today, the church can scarcely afford business as usual. In practice, many traditional churches view their mission as holding Sunday services, satisfying the members and doing a little good here and there. Such churches are on the way out. In a few years they will be dinosaurs. Not because their doctrine is bad, but because they’ve lost their mission. Only churches serious about rescuing the hurting will survive and make a difference.”

Let’s make a difference!

See You at the Gathering Place!
