Are You a Daily Bible Reader?

Reading is important but it is constantly being shoved out of our lives by television, ball games and a host of other concerns. It was Sir Frances Bacon who said, "Reading maketh a full man."

Apparently, Ralph Waldo Emerson concurred with this concept for he advised, "If we encountered a man of rare intellect, we should ask him what books he has read." And Joseph Addison, English essayist, suggested, "Reading is to the mind what exercise is to the body. As by the one, health is preserved, strengthened, and invigorated; by the other, virtue (which is the health of the mind) is kept alive, cherished, and confirmed.

Of course, the mere act of reading will not be beneficial. It may prove detrimental if the works chosen are trash. Smut is going to soil your mind. And fluff can never be filling. Thomas Carlyle, Scottish philosopher, advised, "If time is precious, no book that will not improve by repeated readings deserves to be read at all." You can waste time by reading as well as by watching T.V.

But there is one book where you can never go wrong: the Bible. This book is inspired by God and furnishes man with everything he needs in right living and conduct. It is THE BOOK above all books, and should be read over and over again. Abraham Lincoln said, "I believe the Bible is the best gift God has ever given to man." Theodore Roosevelt said, "A thorough knowledge of the Bible is worth more than a college education."

"Within the covers of the Bible are the answers for all the problems men face," said Ronald Reagan. "A Bible that's falling apart usually belongs to someone who isn't." Charles H. Spurgeon
