THE BIBLE SAYS...

JESUS SAID... "If anyone thirsts, let him come to me and drink" (John 7:37). Jesus encountered an unnamed Samaritan woman near Sychar in Samaria. He told her about the Living Water that He could give her. She had come to the well where Jesus was resting to draw water as she did every day. When Jesus told her that whoever drank of the water He had to offer would never thirst again, of course, she was very interested in the water. Imagine how much easier her life would be, not having to go to the well all the time to provide water.

However, what Jesus had to offer had nothing to do with physical water. What He had to offer was Living Water that would overflow from the person who partook of it and then it would well up into eternal life (John 4:14). When the woman began to change her thinking from physical things to spiritual things, she believed that Jesus was the long-awaited Messiah. She then began to understand what He was saying and what He was offering and immediately went to share this good news with everyone she knew.

It is important that those who are followers of Jesus, who have partaken of this Living Water, realize that this is water that must be shared with others. Jesus said this water would become like a spring inside of us, a spring that cannot be contained. It is meant to build pressure inside of us so that the water will overflow into our lives and into the lives of others. The good news of salvation changes our lives and will change the lives of others. Let us drink of this Living Water and then do all that we can to share it with others.
