THE BIBLE SAYS...

JESUS SAID... "The one who rejects Me and does not accept My sayings has this as his judge" (John 12:48). The Bible tells us that the day of judgment is coming. There are different views about this day. Some want to learn all they can about this day. Others would like to table the matter altogether, preferring to live without any life after death consequences disturbing their present existence. Those holding this view might live as though they have no individual responsibility and no one to answer to concerning their actions. Jesus is telling us this is the wrong view.

It is appointed that people are destined to die once and after that to face the judgment (Hebrews 9:27). The sobering reality of the coming judgment should influence the way we live in this life. King Solomon left no stone unturned in his search for meaningful purpose in this life. In the end, he summarized the only purpose for human existence in Ecclesiastes 12:13-14. "The conclusion, when all has been heard, is: fear God and keep His commandments, because this applies to every person. For God will bring every act to judgment, everything which is hidden, whether it is good or evil."

Jesus tells us if we do not accept His words, those very words will be what we are judged by in the end. His word is God's word which is the Bible. I suppose then, for every person, it boils down to whether we believe the Bible is true. If we believe the Bible is true, we must also believe that life is headed toward a judgment day and should live our lives accordingly. We will all stand before the judgment seat of Jesus one day (2 Corinthians 5:10). Are we ready for that day?
