THE BIBLE SAYS...

JESUS SAID... "What do you want me to do for you" (Mark 10:51). There was a time when Jesus was leaving Jericho and encountered a blind beggar. The beggar had heard of Jesus and was told that He was passing that way. He called out to Him and said, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me" (Mark 10:47). Many rebuked him and told him to be quiet. But Jesus heard him and called the man to Him. That was when Jesus asked him this question.

In those days, to encounter Jesus seems to us as happenstance. This man had to wait until Jesus walked by him. God has now changed all of this. Jesus is revealed to us in God's Word. We can find Him and know Him as we read and understand the Bible. And when we need Jesus, we can call out to Him through prayer. The Apostle Paul tells us, "The Lord is at hand; do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God" (Philippians 4:5-6).

God is always listening. Jesus has made it possible for us to pray through Him to our Heavenly Father. When we call out, Jesus will always answer, "What do you want me to do for you?" We won't be rebuked. We don't need to be afraid of calling out to our Lord. Jesus encourages us to call out to Him in times of need. Jesus calls out to us, "Come to me, all of you who are weary and carry heavy burdens, and I will give you rest" (Matthew 11:28). No matter how big or small we consider our situation, Jesus understands, and He cares. He will always be there to listen to us.
