THE BIBLE SAYS...

JESUS SAID... "What are you discussing together as you walk along?" (Luke 24:17). On the day of His resurrection, the most important day in all of history, I wonder if Jesus thought to Himself, "What am I going to do with the rest of my day?" If it were us, we might have had celebrations in mind. Not Jesus. He decided to walk to nowhere with two nobodies. I only say it this way to make a point. Two men were walking to a village called Emmaus. We know nothing about this little town. It is not mentioned anywhere outside the Bible, and this is the only time it's mentioned in the Bible. We are only told that it was seven miles from Jerusalem. We also know nothing about these two disciples. One is named Cleopas, but we do not find his name anywhere else in the New Testament.

The story says, "That very day Jesus drew near to them and began walking along with them." He simply asked them what they were talking about, which of course, was the events that had just taken place in Jerusalem. Jesus joined the conversation. He taught them from the scriptures and continued with them to their home and ate with them. As they ate, they recognized Him. We can only imagine what great witnesses they became concerning the resurrection. When I think about my savior, I like to think of Him as someone who loves and cares about a nobody like me. What a great example for us. Jesus wants us to spend time with people. It doesn't matter who they are or how important they are or if we know them at all. We should learn to draw near to people and walk along with them, even if we find ourselves in the middle of nowhere. It is always worth our time and effort to talk to someone about Jesus. Something amazing may happen.

News and Notes

Dwight Rampley is healing from a fall that caused some cuts and bruising. He's recovering and feeling better.

Dean Johnson, former superintendent of Nazareth schools, passed away. His memorial service was yesterday at Northwest Church of Christ in Plainview. Please keep his wife, Agatha, in your prayers.

Lisa McCasland's mother, Wanda Page, is having some health issues. Please keep her in your prayers.

Dear Church Family, Thank you for your many acts of kindness during my recent surgery. All the expressions of care and concern, the prayers, calls, visits.--All meant so much to us. We are blessed to be a part of such a loving family. Sincerely, Buttons and Kathy Carlisle and Family

Dear Church Family, I have been showered with so much love and concern lately that I just have to express my appreciation to my church family for all the calls, cards, prayers, emails, and messages. You have no idea how much these things we consider so small can make such an impact on the recipient. Keep up your good works in the name of Jesus! Love You All, Gaye Young

Congratulations to Kelly and Gigi Hayhurst on their new marriage! They exchanged vows and celebrated with their families in our fellowship hall yesterday.

Activities

Our Summer Series will finish at 6:00 this Wednesday, August 30, with Rick Bloodworth. Please bring sandwiches, chips, dips and desserts for the fellowship meal following the lesson.

We will be welcoming the new AIMers next Sunday, September 1st, for potluck. We have two sign-up sheets on the activity table for those who can make the AIMers breakfast and for those who can feed them lunch. Please check the dates and see!

We will have a "Tulia Tool" wedding shower for Micah Bailey and his bride-elect, Amanda, on November 4th. Please contact Anna if you would like to be a hostess.
