In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins...Eph. 1:7

THE BIBLE SAYS...

JESUS SAID... "I glorified you on earth, having accomplished the work that you gave me to do" (John 17:4). Jesus came into the world in order to do the work of the Father, which was to redeem humanity. As Jesus nears his final hours on earth, He proclaims that he has finished this work. The work of God involved planning, revealing, and delivering the means by which man could be redeemed from sin. Jesus became the instrument through which that would be accomplished.

We are to be "the praise of the glory of God's grace" (Ephesians 1:6,12). While we were sinners, God made us to be accepted in the beloved, that is, in Christ, through the provisions and arrangements God made. The next verse shows this arrangement to be redemption through the blood of Jesus (Eph. 1:7). When people sinned, God had a plan that he designed before time began. Because of the loving heart of God, he would not allow his own creation to be hopelessly caught up in the bondage of sin and alienated from his fellowship. God went to work. God working through redemption makes it possible for man to be saved.

When the Bible talks about God working in us, it has to do with this plan and system of redemption. God's work provides grace which was delivered by Jesus who carried out his plan of redemption and everything relating to it. The Lord's church are those who are redeemed. The redeemed are those who have accepted the work of God, through believing in his Son and obeying his gospel of redemption. It will be only the redeemed who will be saved to live eternally with God. The work of God, accomplished by Jesus, is redemption.
