THE BIBLE SAYS...

APOSTLE PAUL SAID..."Those who are in the flesh cannot please God." (Romans 8:8). Paul presents two different lifestyles. One that is governed by the flesh, and the other by the Holy Spirit. Life that is governed by the flesh is physical, temporary, and worldly. Such a life produces the works of the flesh (Galatians 5:19-21). Such is not the lifestyle taught by God's Word. In contrast, a life governed by the Spirit provides for a whole different life. This life is centered on the eternal, the forever aspect of existence.

One cannot walk according to the flesh and at the same time be walking by the Spirit. We need to examine the fruit of our lives to determine which lifestyle dominates us. In contrast to Galatians 5:19-21, verses 22-23 teach that living a life according to the Spirit is filled with "love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control." We must not set our minds on the things of the flesh, which lead to death, but on the things of the Spirit, which lead to life and peace (Romans 8:5-6).

Each one of us should be on a journey of transforming our lives from the flesh to the Spirit. We must do all we can to do away with fleshly ambition. These are the things in our lives that come from our own desires and passions. We then must fill our lives with the fruits of the Spirit. God's desire is that we are constantly moving toward a life of holiness and godliness. As long as we live in this world, we will struggle with the pull between these two lifestyles. While we may never completely rid ourselves of all our worldly desires, we are to be improving, growing, and changing, in our effort to become just like Jesus.

Thank you to the Church of Christ for the wonderful meal that was provided for the Dale Morris family before his funeral on March 20, 2024. Each dish was perfectly prepared by the members of your church. You provided a place for family and friends to eat and visit but also gave us a support system of wonderful people that helped us grieve. The Morris and Hoelting families have numerous friends that belong to the Church of Christ that are true blessings in our lives.

A special thank you to Bob and Irita Colson for all they have done for our family. There could not have been a better man or friend that could have performed the funeral or burial than Bob.

Words of gratitude will never be enough. We hope that you will accept our donation of $500 to your church. We know that you will pay it forward when another is in need.

Each and every one of you were greatly appreciated in our time of loss.

Love always, Kay Morris
