The Bible Says... God Cannot Lie

Balaam said, "God is not a man, that He should lie, nor a son of man, that He should change His mind. Does He speak and then not act? Does He promise and not fulfill?" (Numbers 23:19). God is holy. That quality makes it impossible for Him to lie. The holiness of God is His moral and ethical perfection, His absolute integrity that sets Him apart from all His creatures. God's holiness is thus related to His transcendence. Unlike us, God does not conform to any standard; He is the standard. God is absolutely holy with an infinite purity incapable of being changed. Because of His holiness, when God speaks, He not only will not, but cannot lie. He never deceives. He never distorts or misrepresents what He says or does. Lying is against His nature.

Because God cannot lie, God's Word, the Bible, is completely trustworthy. "Every word of God is flawless" (Proverbs 30:5). God's character and the communications that proceed from His character are purer than anything this world can produce. The basis of God's promise to Abraham in Genesis 12 was God's own unchanging nature. "Since there was no one greater for Him to swear by, He swore by himself, saying, 'I will surely bless you and give you many descendants'" (Hebrews 6:13-14). The text continues with the statement, "It is impossible for God to lie." If God could lie, He would not be transcendent. In fact, He would be just like us. Our faith is based on promises from God. It is the promises of God that give us hope and strength to hold fast to that hope. It is the transcendent nature of God that allows us to know that His words are true, and His promises are firm. "Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for He who promised is faithful" (Hebrews 10:23).

News

Linda Looney Hodges passed away last Sunday. A graveside service will be planned later.

Please keep Sawyer Combest, Chance and Gina's son, in your prayers. He has some health issues.

Jacob, Britt and Amanda Liles had a consultation at the Scottish Rites Children's Hospital last Wednesday.

Becky Moreno is hoping to have eye surgery soon. She has other health issues too, so keep her in your prayers.

Brian Bailey will have shoulder surgery September 11th. Please keep him in your prayers.

Dwight Rampley fell last week. He suffered some minor head injuries and broke a rib. Keep him in prayer.

Central Church of Christ, Thank you so much for allowing our family to use your fellowship hall for lunch after my father-in-law's graveside services. The entire family was so appreciative of the gracious offer. We enjoyed getting together so much! Thanks so much, Becky and Tim Maloy and the Knutson family
