The Bible Says

Apostle Paul said, "For to me, to live is Christ" (Philippians 1:21). If there is a statement that would be at the center of life as a Christian, this would be it. Paul is saying that everything he has tried to be, everything he was, and everything he looked forward to, pointed to Christ. From the time of Paul's conversion until his martyrdom, every move he made was aimed at advancing the knowledge, gospel, and church of Christ. Paul's singular aim was to bring glory to Jesus.

"To live is Christ" means that we proclaim the gospel of Christ. Paul preached in synagogues, at riversides, and in prison. His message was constant: "Jesus Christ and Him crucified" (1 Corinthians 2:2). He brought the message of Christ's sacrifice to kings, soldiers, statesmen, priests, and philosophers, Jews and Gentiles. "To live is Christ" means that we imitate the example of Christ. Everything that Jesus did and said, is what Paul wanted to do and say. Paul said, "Follow my example, as I follow the example of Christ" (1 Corinthians 11:1). What would Jesus do? That is what we want to do.

"To live is Christ" means that we pursue the knowledge of Christ. We want to know Christ better each day. "To live is Christ" is to be willing to give up anything that prevents us from being a follower of His and a servant to Him. "To live is Christ" means that Christ is our focus, our goal, and our chief desire. Christ is the center point of our mind, heart, body, and soul. Everything that we do, we do for Christ's glory. As we run the "race marked out for us," we lay aside entangling sin and worldly distractions, "fixing our eyes on Jesus" (Hebrews 12:1-2). He is our life.

THE LORD IS COMING

Stacy McCasland

We were therefore buried with him through baptism into death in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, we too may live a new life. Romans 6:4
