You will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.

Acts 1:8

The Bible Says

Jesus said, "And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age" (Matthew 28:20). In the final verses of Matthew's gospel, Jesus gave His disciples what we refer to as the Great Commission: "to go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you." This mission will continue to the end of the age. As Jesus' time on earth neared its end, He often told His disciples of what was to come, including what will happen at the end of the age, when time will forever end and Jesus will come again to gather His own. He promised the disciples that He would be with them always during this time.

These things Jesus said to them holds true for His disciples today. Firstly, this means that their mission has become our mission. It is the mission of the Lord's church and each individual disciple to teach and baptize, continuing to make other disciples. Secondly, in these efforts, Jesus will be with us. He would not be with us physically. This was difficult for His early disciples to accept because He had always been with them physically. But Jesus is now with us through the Holy Spirit. Through the Holy Spirit, we have assurance that God is in control and that He is with us always. This promise sustains, encourages, and strengthens us as we carry out our mission of making more disciples, and live as Jesus' ambassadors on earth, no matter what trials or difficulties come our way.

WONDER OF WONDERS

The Summer Series continues June 11 at 6:00 with Josh Duncan from Happy Church of Christ! Meal to follow!

News and Notes

Wilma Hale is in Swisher Memorial with a compression break in her back. She will be in the hospital for several weeks. She enjoys visitors.

Treva Murrell is now home. She has some pain and discomfort but would enjoy short visits.

Don Rouse is recovering from his chemotherapy treatment last week. Please no visitors for a few days.

The Bailey's friend, Hazel Hatcher, is improving. Her breathing tube was removed last Thursday.

Activities

We have an evening service tonight at 6, but no sandwich supper. Our suppers have been moved to Wednesdays during the Summer Series.

WOW continues this Tuesday, June 10, with "God's Gift of Hydrology." We are thankful to our helpers and the 22 kids who came last week! We still need 20 oz. soda bottles and acrylic paints. See Sharla for details.

Our Summer Series will continue this Wednesday with Josh Duncan, minister at Happy Church of Christ. If you can help with meals during the Summer Series, please check the list on the activity table.

Next week will be our 3rd Sun. potluck and early service.
