THE BIBLE SAYS

Apostle Paul said, "To the church of God in Corinth...together with all those everywhere who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ" (1 Corinthians 1:2). He was identifying those to whom he was writing to as those who call on the name of the Lord. The first mention in Scripture of people calling on the name of the Lord is Genesis 4:26. "Seth also had a son, and he named him Enosh. At that time people began to call on the name of the Lord." Seth's descendants stood out from their corrupt society in that they began worshipping together, seeking help from the Creator.

To call on the name of the Lord is to approach Him, and call Him by name, with praise, thanksgiving, and petition, in devoted faithful worship. Those who are children of God will naturally call on the name of the Lord. Calling on the name of the Lord presupposes faith in Him, goes hand in hand in our confession that Jesus is Lord and that God raised Him from the dead, and becomes a part of one's salvation process (Romans 10:9-13). Calling Him by name expresses familiarity and helps to connect us to Him. There is a difference between knowing about God and knowing Him personally. When we call upon the name of the Lord, we are proclaiming our dependence upon Him.

Those who call on the name of the Lord are those who recognize Him as their Lord and Savior. Whether it is a first-time calling upon Jesus' name for forgiveness of sins or a continuous calling as the relationship progresses and grows, we are giving Him lordship over our lives in surrender to His will. Ultimately, calling on the name of the Lord is a sign of humility and dependence on God our Creator and Redeemer.
