THE BIBLE SAYS

God said, "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness" (Genesis 1:26). Thus, God finished His work with a "personal touch." God formed Adam from the dust and gave him life by sharing His own breath. Accordingly, humanity is unique among all God's creations, having both a material body and an immaterial soul/spirit. Having the "image" of God means, in the simplest terms, that we were made to resemble God. Adam did not resemble God in the sense of God having flesh and blood. "God is spirit" (John 4:24). And so, the image of God refers to the immaterial part of humanity. It sets human beings apart from the animal world. It fits them for the dominion God intended them to have over the earth and enables them to commune with their Maker.

Mentally, humanity was created with the ability to reason. This is a reflection of God's intellect. Morally, humanity was created in righteousness and perfect innocence. This reflects God's perfect holiness and righteousness. Socially, humanity was created for relationship and fellowship reflecting God's love, His triune nature, and His decision to create humanity at all. Also, part of being made in God's image is that we have the capacity to make free choices. Although they were given a righteous nature, Adam and Eve made an evil choice to rebel against their Creator. This was the beginning of sin and separation from God. Today, we still bear the image of God, but we also bear the scars of sin. The good news is that God set in motion a plan to redeem and restore individuals to their original image of God. By God's grace, in Christ Jesus, and through our faith we can be forgiven and reconciled, being born again into new creations in the likeness of God (2 Corinthians 5:17).

wonderfully made.
