THE BIBLE SAYS

Apostle Paul said, "My purpose is that they have the full riches of complete understanding, in order that they may know the mystery of God, namely, Christ" (Colossians 2:2-3). There is nothing like a mystery that makes us crave to know just what it might be. Paul understood this and he saw his calling to be a mystery revealer. There has been wild speculation about what this mystery might be, assuming that it is something more mysterious than it really is. Paul makes it very plain in this passage: The mystery of God is His Son, Jesus Christ.

A "mystery" in the New Testament is something that had at one time been hidden but is now revealed. It is something that has not been made known in other generations as it has now been revealed in these last days. The mystery of God's will is that "which he purposed in Christ, to be put into effect when the times reach their fulfillment—to bring unity to all things in heaven and on earth under Christ" (Ephesians 1:9-10). Jesus, as the Messiah and His Kingdom had long been prophesied, but the exact details of this were the mystery.

Apostle Paul said, "Beyond all question, the mystery of godliness is great: He appeared in a body, was vindicated by the Spirit, was seen by angels, was preached among the nations, was believed on in the world, was taken up in glory" (1 Timothy 3:16). The secret to being godly was hidden but is now revealed. It is to those who believe in Christ that the mystery is made known. And by it, we come to learn that we of our own volition cannot please God; we must depend on Christ. God has revealed His complete Word to His saints who have now heard and understand the power of the Gospel of Christ. The fullness of the mystery of God is revealed in the plan of salvation through Jesus.

News and Notes

Cindy Bartram had knee surgery last Friday after falling and breaking her kneecap. Pray for Cindy. Funeral services for Claudie Hinkle, former Tulia resident, were last Friday in Clarendon.

Please pray for Becky Moreno's cousin, fourteen-year-old Breana Foreman, who lives in San Angelo. She has been diagnosed with cancer in her right knee. Tests show it has not spread. She starts chemo soon.

Lucy Trevino's brother, Cipriano Castaneda, has been diagnosed with cancer. He lives in Cuero. Please pray for him.

Activities

Join us today for our 3rd Sunday potluck and early service. We will have a men's meeting after our sandwich supper on April 26. All men are encouraged to attend.

May 3rd at noon is our Senior Banquet for graduating seniors Maddy Klein and Melody Rampley. Everyone is invited to attend. If you can help pay for brisket, please see Jennifer. We have a sign-up sheet on the activity table if you can help with side dishes. Gift baskets for Maddy and Melody are at the back of the auditorium on Sundays.
