So do not be ashamed to testify about our Lord, or ashamed of me his prisoner. But join with me in suffering for the gospel, by the power of God, who has saved us and called us to a holy life.
2 Timothy 1:8,9

THE BIBLE SAYS

Moses said, "Know therefore that the LORD your God is God; He is the faithful God, keeping His covenant of love to a thousand generations of those who love Him and keep His commands" (Deuteronomy 7:9). The original word translated as "faithful" conveys the concept of being trustworthy. When Scripture declares that God is faithful, it signifies His trustworthiness. We can trust God. When He makes a promise, it is firm and unwavering. God's trustworthiness hinges on His attributes, specifically His love, justice, and holiness. His character will not allow Him to break His promises.

The fact that God is faithful is readily seen in the Old Testament. For instance, God promised Abraham, who was initially childless, that "all people on earth will be blessed through you" (Genesis 12:3). Despite seemingly impossible challenges, God gave Abraham a son, Isaac. Through Isaac came Jacob, the forefather of Israelites, through whom Jesus the Messiah came, bringing the blessing of salvation to all nations, thus fulfilling His promise.

We understand God's faithfulness more when we know His character, revealed in His Word. Paul boldly proclaimed God's faithfulness, especially in regard to our salvation. It is due to God's faithfulness that Paul is assured that God will keep His children firm to the end, so they will be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ (1 Corinthians 1:8). God's faithfulness in accomplishing His promises gives us trust and confidence in Him. "God is not a man, that He should lie, nor a son of man, that He should change His mind. Does He speak and then not act? Does He promise and not fulfill" (Numbers 23:19)?
