Continue steadfastly in prayer, being watchful in it with thanksgiving. Colossians 4:2

The Bible Says

Be Thankful

James said, "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights" (James 1:17). Gratitude is more than simply saying thank you when something good happens. It is an attitude of the heart that recognizes God as the source of every blessing and acknowledges His goodness in every season of life. As Christians, we have countless reasons to be thankful, not only for what God gives us but also for who He is and what He has done for us. When we recognize that our blessings are not simply the result of our own efforts but expressions of God's generosity, our hearts become filled with gratitude. Our greatest reason for thanksgiving goes far beyond the physical blessings of this life. God has given us something we could never provide for ourselves: salvation through Jesus Christ. Ephesians 2:4-5 reminds us that because of His great love and mercy, God "made us alive together with Christ." We were undeserving, yet He extended His grace. We were separated from Him, yet He provided a way for us to be reconciled. No amount of earthly wealth or success can compare with the gift of redemption.

A grateful heart also changes the way we face difficult circumstances. 1 Thessalonians 5:18 instructs us, "give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you." This does not mean we are thankful for every hardship, but that even in difficult times, we can remain thankful for God's presence, promises, and faithfulness. Our circumstances may change, but God's goodness does not. Gratitude should become a daily part of our lives. It should influence our prayers, our attitudes, our words, and the way we treat others. Psalm 107:1 declares, "Oh give thanks to the LORD, for He is good, for His steadfast love endures forever!" We have been blessed beyond what we deserve. May we never become so accustomed to God's goodness that we forget to thank Him for it. A grateful heart is a heart that never loses sight of the goodness of God.

Activities

We will have an evening service today at 6, but no meal.

We will have potluck and early service next Sunday, Dec 6. Please join us!

Save the date for our Christmas party, December 13, starting at 5:00. More details to come. If you can decorate a table for the party, sign your name to the list on the activity table. We need volunteers!

The Omicron Study Club is again sponsoring Christmas angels. The angels are on the bulletin board across from the office. Please read the requested items for your chosen angel. Pick up an angel and add your name to the sign-up sheet. You are welcome to pick up more than one. A donation is also welcome. Please return the unwrapped gifts to the office in a bag with the angel description attached by next Sunday, December 6. Thanks!

Happy Birthday!
